KILLING OF ZELIG NOT COINCIDENCE
Whitman Thinks Murder of Witness Against Becker Was Planned.
SLAYER IS IN THE TOMBS
His Story Is Partly Broken Down Under Rigid Examination.

New York, October 6.—Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty declared to-night that he was satisfied that the motive for the murder of "Big Jack" Zelig by "Red Phil" Davidson here last night was not to seal Zelig's lip against former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker who will be placed on trial to-morrow for the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

After questioning Davidson for several hours to-day and investigating events leading up to the killing of Zelig, the deputy commissioner said he was inclined to credit Davidson's story that he killed Zelig in revenge because the latter had robbed him.
